

1		2	3	4			5
		6
			7		8
9

Across

- 1 Name of the founding father who almost became the Sixers mascot, and the dog who did. (8)
- 2 Alternative to "VS." on the schedule grid. (2)
- 3 This Canadian point guard led the 2000 Olympics in assists, but got bounced in the first round by the French club--who Team USA eventually beat for the gold medal. (4)
- 4 Boston's City Edition jersey has a Celtic one of these on the waistband. (4)
- 5 In American English, the word used to identify people, places, or things. "United States" is a proper one. (4)
- 6 How Fourth of July celebrators hope they'll look after getting holiday rays, as opposed to burned. (3)
- 7 As Austin is to Doc, so Sam Adams was to liberty, according to the title of the revolutionary organization he founded. (3)
- 8 Alma mater to Isaiah Roby, Ty Lue, and Erick Strickland, briefly. (2)
- 9 How many Adams siblings there are, including Adams. (Coincidentally, how old you need to serve in the US military.) (8)

Down

- 1 Word preceding throw or agent in basketball parlance, and country in patriotic phrasing.