

Across

- 2 Rarely used Dwyane Wade nickname, but common interjection when watching his highlights. (3)
- 4 James Harden has struggled in postseason elimination games because regular season heroics have made him this, according to the Houston party line. (5)
- 6 Thunder ____, early three-point specialist and Phoenix fan favorite in the 90s. (Unrelated to Bob Marley.) (3)
- 7 Barkley's title when referring to him by nickname. (3)
- 9 Spurs mastermind behind trading Kawhi for DeMar, cutting Bam Adebayo from the Team USA roster, and many a media member's humiliation, affectionately. (3)
- 10 This is the word, so to speak, that a Brit like Joel Freeland might use to address his mother. (3)

- 12 Tracy McGrady's nickname, without the T. (3)
- 13 Adjective Barkley always uses when describing the women in San Antonio. (3)
- 15 A proven player well into his career, briefly. (3)
- 16 Duncan and Popovich played Good and Bad versions of this, respectively, as the leading influencers of Spurs culture. (3)

Down

- 1 Durant's winning score in 2010, when the event was last televised for an NBA audience before being revived during the 2020 suspension. (3)
- 2 Durant said he couldn't do this with cats. (3)
- 3 First name of the '78 Finals MVP. (3)

- 4 How Trevor Booker guided his HORSE-like circus shot in a 2015 to beat the shot clock buzzer. (3)

- 5 How you might describe the hopes for a finish to the 2019-20 season that includes fans, anything but bright. (3)

- 6 Moniker for a professional who saves lives or coaches Clippers. (3)

- 8 Nick Nurse was more comfortable when Drake did this to his shoulders than Anthony Tolliver was when Michael Beasley did the same to his knee. (3)

- 9 This name is repeated three times on the Clippers 2019-20 roster. (3)

- 11 Rudy Gobert might drop this after a salient point, or 8 Down it after contracting coronavirus. (3)

- 12 Kobe's retort to Shaq saying there was no "I" in team was that there was this, as revealed by O'Neal at Bryant's memorial. (2)

- 14 Suns mascot. (2)