

Across

- 4 Your mom is more likely to break this than to be it. (But she can still cut the rug.) (3)
- 7 McGee's mother, a rare first generation pro basketball mom. (6)
- 8 A mom might do this for your dress clothes before you have your grownup game together. (4)
- 9 Flo birthed this multi-sport phenom, who was never a basketball pro. (He still made her very proud.) (4)
- 10 Kyrie's deceased mother, briefly, who was a high school basketball standout in her own right. (3)
- 12 This Heat rookie was reunited with his mother this winter after his journey to the NBA necessitated a three year separation. (5)
- 14 This undersized big made use of his bounce by dominating the boards in his best years at Morehead State and Denver. (6)
- 15 Chrysa who serves as the NBA's "Executive Vice President of Strategic Development and Engagement" on paper, but as "second mom" as described by many players in earnest. (4)
- 18 Word preceding many a mother's lecture about nuts and candies, friends jumping off cliffs, and saying nothing instead of something not nice. (2)
- 19 See 26 Down
- 20 It's never a good idea to cross this with your mother. (4)
- 21 How many mothers 14 Across has. (3)
- 23 The subject of so many of these clues, briefly. (3)
- 24 The subject of so many of these clues, briefly. (2)
- 25/18D If your mother tells you "Do as I ___, not as ___." it doesn't make her

- a hypocrite. (She just doesn't want you to learn the hard way, like she did.) (3,3)
- 27 Draymond tried to take this away from his mother, because she has "no chill". (He lost that battle, and should've known better.) (7)
- 30 A mother might remind you that her first job is not to be this to you. (3)
- 31 A word to take seriously from a mother. (Did she stutter?) (2)
- 32 Joel Freeland, who represents Great Britain in international play, likely calls his mother this. (3)
- of earning. (11)
- 5 What Durant and Harden's mom made in an early Thunder meme celebrating the youth of their since-disbanded core. (10)
- 6 Iverson's mother. (3)
- 11 Many players likely refer to their mom as this, but it's most apropos for Jennifer Ivey's son to employ. (5)
- 13 Mary Anthony's jersey number, in roman numerals. (3)
- 16 If you accompany your mother to church, you might not be able to sit very close to her depending on the size of her ___. (No, I'm NOT calling her fat.) (3)
- 17 1 Down supports several of these, entities dedicated to social change not run by the state (briefly). (3)
- 18 See 25 Across
- 22 What you get when you turn Mom upside down. (3)
- 23 Your mother may have omitted some key details when telling you how she and your father did this. (Keep your head out of the gutter.) (3)

- 24 See 26
- 26/19/3/24D Kevin Durant's famous, tearful line directed at 2 Down in 2014. (3,2,4,3)
- 27 If this is the only place (slangily) you send Mother's Day greetings, you need to put down the social media and give her a ring. (2)
- 28 Where you don't want to be, in relation to your mother's proverbial doghouse. (2)
- 29 Precedes ": Mom" on a Mother's Day envelope. (2)

Down

- 1 The initials for the official network of pro ballers' moms. (7)
- 2 Durant's mother and recipient of 19 Across/3 Down/24 Down. (5)
- 3 See 26
- 4 7 Across owns this distinction as a basketball legend, one which JaVale has no legitimate chance